

BRERETON C. JONES

John J. Johnson, Executive Director
Kentucky Commission on Human Rights
332 West Broadway, 7th Floor
Louisville, KY 40202

Dear Executive Director Johnson:

Please know how pleased I am to be accorded the honor of being an honorary co-chair of the Kentucky Commission on Human Rights. There is no other subject that deserves more of our attention than that which has been addressed so fervently in our Commonwealth for most of the last fifty years.

I greatly regret that Mrs. Jones and I will be out of state during the celebration of the 50th Anniversary Civil Rights Conference, but we wish for you a very successful and inspirational gathering. You deserve it!

With best regards, I am

Sincerely,
